To Whom It May Concern:

I have known John Lynch for some 25 years. He served as a planner for my firm, Tim Miller Associates, for more than ten years.

John is a knowledgeable, detail-oriented and hard-working individual. He has diligently completed assignments in a timely manner and has been conscientious in managing budgets and serving the technical needs of our clients.

His interests and abilities extend into areas outside of his core expertise, and his common-sense and pragmatic approach has been greatly appreciated by colleagues and clients alike.

I have no reservation in recommending John to serve as a project manager or planning consultant on any associated assignment.

Sincerely,
